Annapolis, West Point Accept Nine County Youths

Congressman Jack Z. Anderson yesterday announced names of nine youths who have been appointed from the Eighth Congressional District to study at the United States Military Academy at West Point or the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis.

The appointments are made through Anderson every two years. A merit system dependent upon passage of both an intelligence and a physical examination is the basis for making the appointments, Anderson said.

Gerald Robert Bassett, 1256 Laurel avenue, East Palo Alto; Sheridan Sweigert, 1181 Forest avenue, Palo Alto; and William Miller Loughton, 1617 Floribunda avenue, Hillsborough.

Those appointed to West Point are:

William E. Armstrong, 2020 Cowper street, Palo Alto; Joseph M. O'Neill, 218 29th avenue, San Mateo; Emanuel T. Argostosa, 925 Palmona avenue, Burlingame; Lawrence Foss, 1 Sandhill road, Menlo Park; and Richard M. Wilson, 1257 East Cliff drive, Santa Cruz.

RESURFACING U.S. 101 SOUTH OF KING CITY

Resurfacing of a 12-mile section of U.S. 101 south from King City to San Lucas is now in progress, the California State Automobile Association reports. There is a rough one-mile detour at present. As this work progresses toward completion late in September, traffic may be subject to slight delays.

Motorists driving south may bypass this construction zone by leaving U.S. 101 at a point two miles west of King City, proceeding via Jolon and returning to U.S. 101 two miles north of Bradley. This route, hard-surfaced throughout, is about six miles longer.

joyed the company not only of the Airedale Paul Pry but also of a wire-haired Fox Terrier and two Collies.

Herbert Hoover, while President, was the owner of many dogs. Among them were two German Shepherds, a Collie, an Irish Wolfhound, a Norwegian Elkhound, The Norwegian Elkhound, Weeje, was the President's particular favorite and distinguished herself by presenting the Hoovers with a litter of puppies while living in the White House. These puppies, however, were not the first to have been born in such illustrious surroundings. A dog belonging to Abraham Lincoln's children had delighted the President's family by producing a family on the same day that the White House cat chose to whelp kittens.

Fala, Franklin D. Roosevelt's famed Scottish Terrier, is probably the most publicized dog of modern times, having been the ever-present companion of his renowned master through the war years. Fala was a silent witness at many famous meetings and conferences and was a most offended little dog when he was not allowed to attend the ceremony of President Roosevelt's Third Inauguration. While Fala is the best known of the First Dogs of the Land, he was just one of a long succession of dogs that have been owned and loved by the Roosevelts, who have always found keen pleasure in the company of dogs.

Probably no family that lived in the White House had more dogs than the Theodore Roosevelts. With six children, all of them animal lovers, it was inevitable that many dogs should be part of the family life. A Rat Terrier, a Bull Terrier, several dogs that were frankly mongrels, and a St. Bernard named Rollo, were owned by the Roosevelts. In addition to the family pets, Theodore Roosevelt was always interested in the sporting and hunt breeds, as would be natural to a man who was a noted sportsman and big game hunter.

The Calvin Coolidges were devoted to dogs. During their occupancy of the White House they enjoyed the company of dogs.

DOGS A FIXTURE IN WHITE HOUSE

23 of Nation's 32 Chief Executives Have Been Dog Lovers

Of the 32 men who have served as Chief Executives of the United States, fully 23 have been dog owners and lovers, reports the Gaines Dog Research Center, New York City.

Undoubtedly, it states, the fact that the White House has been the home of many dogs has had its influence in making America the most dog-mad nation the world has yet known. Following the example of their Presidents, millions of Americans have come to feel that a home without a dog is incomplete, and that a child who grows up without the companionship and protection of a dog is underprivileged.

The tradition of the Presidents owning dogs started right at the beginning with George Washington, who was intensely interested in dogs, Foxhounds in particular. The current canine residents of the presidential mansion are Mike, a handsome young Irish Setter, and Peller, a silver buff Cocker Spaniel puppy.

FAIR PEAR

California's famous pears will be featured in many of the 40 county exhibits during the California State Fair in Sacramento September 2 through 12, and they are delicious, according to pretty Joan Harlow of Sacramento. She says those picked near her own city are the "best in the world." Of course Joan is prejudiced but judges will decide during the Fair when $45,000 in premium awards will be split among successful exhibitors of the state's diversified agricultural products.

Rummage Sale Set At Ocean View

"Life's Resting Points" will be the topic this Sunday of the Rev. Joseph H. Bennett's sermon in the Ocean View Congregational-Community Church.

Services at 11 a.m. are preceded by children's Sunday school class at 9:45. A nursery for younger children is maintained during the worship hour.

A rummage and needlework sale was being planned this week for tomorrow in the church social hall. Scheduled to start at 10 a.m., the sale is designed to raise money for the church's organ fund. Donuts and coffee will be served.

COLMA BOYS CLUB WINS CLASS 'A' LEAGUE TITLE BY BEATING OWLS

In a second close battle in as many weeks, the Colma Boys Club class A baseball nine took the measure of the Owl Drug tossers Sunday at Harrison park, 4 to 3, in a 10-inning ball game. A week previously, the two teams fought to a one run tie for 10 innings at Marchbank.

The victory brought Colma a championship of the National class league in these parts. Colma lost only one game out of twelve contests this season.

The Owls led all through the game as a result of a group of errors by the locals on the rough Harrison diamond, but left-fielder Whol tied things by scoring in the eighth inning.

Don Mossi issued a few walks which, coupled with errors on the field, gave the Owls their runs, but issued only one bona fide hit throughout the ten-inning game. Mossi won his own game by clouting a triple in the last frame with two men on base to end the contest.

The box-score:

Battle Over H.S. Name In Millbrae And San Bruno

A battle over the name of "Capuchino High School," new 500-capacity school recently authorized by the San Mateo Union High School District, raged between San Bruno and Millbrae today.

In answer to a campaign staged by San Bruno citizens to change the name to "San Bruno High School," Millbrae residents grouped together to ask their city council already agreed upon by the board of trustees.

Mrs. Betty Schamp, Capuchino-Millwood Improvement Club leader, told the Millbrae council last week that "the San Bruno council is scheduled to pass a resolution asking that the name be changed."

"I think our council should take the same steps to prevent it," she said. "The new school will be entirely surrounded by the Capuchino district, and should, therefore, be named Capuchino."

MOSSI JOINS MUSTANG GRIDDER, OPEN SEASON NEXT SATURDAY

The outlook for Daly City's Mustangs, local Sunday football aggregation, was better today with Don Mossi, Jefferson's All-P.A.L. quarterback and All-Northern California quarterback, signing the roster for the local eleven.

The Mustangs first encounter will be against Oakdale at the high school football field on Saturday, September 4. A large crowd is expected for the first warm-up encounter.

Using a single wing back formation the Mustangs practice every Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 6 to 8 p.m. at the high school and on Saturdays and Sundays from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Jefferson High Wins Swim Meet

The city-wide recreation swimming meet was easily the most successful affair staged this summer by the Daly City Recreation Department, directors agreed after last Friday's water event at the high school.

Divided into four age classifications—two for boys and two for girls—the meet was highlighted by comedy diving and swimming as well as serious competition.

Ever non-swimmers were included in the festivities, competing in simple water races, games and stunts specially designed for youngsters who are yet too young to "stay up."

After a diving session at the beginning of the meet, the 22 swimming events were run off rapidly. Races included free style, breast stroke and backstroke, free-style and medley relays.

A relay team composed of Glen Smith, Jack Root, Ed Camilago and Ralph Capps, directors, challenged the speedy high school team, but after a valiant effort, lost to the superior combination of Erwin Atwood, Stanley Davis, Jim Fernandez and Ed Galindo.

The high school team, over-all winner, will receive a banner for its trophy collection. Winner certificates were awarded to: Stanley Davis and Joe Bocci of the high school; Mary Stone of Lincoln, and Janice Toole of Jefferson.

Over-all scoring results disclosed a high of 142 for the high school; 84 for Lincoln; Jefferson, 23; Crocker, 5, and Marchbank, a big round zero.

Escort Detachment Vacancies Told By Recruit Chief

Vacancies in the Sixth Army's escort detachments at Oakland, California, and Ogden, Utah, were announced today by Major Frank J. West, in charge of the local U.S. Army and U.S. Air Force recruiting station at 428 Market street, San Francisco.

Only the highest type of men are acceptable for those exacting assignments, he stated. They must be able to perform their duties without supervision, and should possess character, personality, military bearing, neatness and cleanliness in both person and uniform.

Major West revealed that former servicemen with the following military occupation specialty numbers are eligible for escort duty: 405, 590, 345, and 835 at Oakland, and 060, 803, 405, 345 and 062 at Ogden.

WEEK-END GUESTS AT FONTANA HOME

Houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Elio A. Fontana of Colma last week end were Mr. and Mrs. Martin Schaefer of Kennedy, Texas, and Mr. and Mrs. Werner Pevestorf of San Antonio.

The Texas visitors were shown about the bay area Saturday and Sunday by their hosts. The friends met when they were stationed at the San Antonio army base.

D.C. Boys Club Beats San Mateo Nine In Slug-Fest

With free transportation provided by Bill Potter of R. L. Stevens Motors, the D. C. Boys Club baseballers traveled to San Mateo Sunday to whip a San Mateo Giant team by a sizeable 13 to 10 score.

Angelo Craviotto, slugging centerfielder, slugged three hits in as many trips to the plate.

Pitcher Aldo Canepa struck out 16 opposition batsmen.

Minority Candidates Scheduled In S.F.

First of the minority party candidates to visit in San Francisco, Edward A. Tichert, Socialist Labor Party presidential candidate, will deliver a lecture on Friday, August 27, at Druid's Hall, 44 Page street, San Francisco.

The vice-presidential candidate, Stephen Emery, will speak over station KGO at 7:45 p.m. on August 31.

On Saturday, August 28, the candidate will be given a banquet and reception by the Bay Area Campaign committee of the Socialist Labor Party at Serbian Hall, 225 Valencia street.

Junipero Serra Wins Sunday Game By 3 To 1 Score

Junipero Serra Merchants came close to shutting out Boyajian Bros. baseball club Sunday at Marchbank Park as the locals won out in a 3 to 1 ball game. Boyajian was unable to score until the last of the ninth inning.

Spark-plug of the Serras, veteran catcher Harry Krohn, kept his team hustling all the time and collected two of the locals seven hits.

When the Junipero Serra team changed uniforms two weeks ago from the Daly City Merchants, their former sponsors, the team batting average was .337, classing the outfit as one of the hardest-hitting aggregations in semi-pro competition.

Summer Camp Ends For Girl Scouts

Girl Scout Day Camp was completing its second and last week today, as young feminine scouts and brownies from Daly City, Colma and Brisbane finished up their craft projects and made ready for school next month.

By this time most of them have learned to cook—over a campfire, that is—and can perform the simple tasks that go with outdoor living. In their two weeks at Camp Mattrup, from which they return home each night, the youngsters have learned to make stew, soup, hot chocolate, "sommomores," banana "boots" and Kartoffl Pfannchen (potato pancakes to us laymen).

One of the highlights of the ad-

Improvement Loans Now More Liberal

The policy governing advance for remodeling and additions to homes of California veterans has been liberalized, it was announced today by Floyd D. Granger, Veterans Service Officer.

Under the new plan, state loans for repairs, remodeling or additions have been based only on a basis of proved need, Granger said.

Essential structural repairs and special family problems have been about the reasons accepted.

With the relative easing of the financial shortage, the Department of Veterans Affairs will now give special consideration to requests for loans to improve the livability of the home. Actual necessity will no longer be the only basis for granting these loans.

This does not mean, Granger emphasized, that loans will be made for "whim" remodeling. The veteran will still have to show that his proposed expenditure will enhance the value of his property, and his record of payments on his loan must have been satisfactory.

During July of this year the State advanced $34,370 to 84 veterans for necessary repairs and remodeling. Easing of the necessity requirements is expected to increase the number of these loans.

Further information on loans for repairs, remodeling or additions to State Purchase Plan homes can be obtained from the Veterans Service Office at the Courthouse, Red-

Counties, Cities Challenge Tax Assn. Criticism

Officials of the County Supervisors' Association of California and of the League of California Cities today branded as "false and misleading" a recent news release by the California Taxpayers' Association to the effect that "state subsidies to local governments... already take more than half of the state budget."

Frederic L. Alexander, general manager of the supervisors' group, and Richard Graves, executive director of the league, stated that the actual amount of state subventions to local governments during 1948-49 will amount to only a sixth of the total state budget. Shared revenues of the state and state payments for education, they declared, cannot be considered subventions.

The taxpayers association's statement appeared in its written stand on propositions on the November ballot. It was given in difference to Proposition 18, which provides for state reimbursements to local governments for tax losses resulting from veteran and welfare organization exemptions.

Wood City, or from the Department of Veterans Affairs office at Sacramento. California veterans interested in purchasing their own homes under the State Farm and Home Purchase Plan are also invited to inquire about it at these offices.

Returns Recently From Virginia Visit

It was a brief junket, but Eloise Harrison managed to squeeze an extra amount of sight-seeing into it before she returned August 14 from a week-long tour of Virginia.

The young San Francisco City College coed flew east on August 8 to attend funeral services for her father's only sister. She returned the next week end to continue her pre-med studies at summer school.

Among the points of interest Eloise visited during her short stay were the old city of Williamsburg and Virginia Beach. She also spent some six hours touring Washington, D. C., on her return trip, which was made all the more exciting by a summer electrical storm.

After the novelty of her first trip to the east, Eloise said she was glad to return to Daly City. The fog was "heavenly," she insisted, after the humid heat of Virginia in summertime.

Veteran Service Says Tropical Diseases May Mean Benefits

Veterans who incurred tropical or certain other chronic diseases during their wartime service but who have not been able hitherto to qualify for Government treatment and disability rights have been given some good news by Floyd D. Granger, Veterans Service Officer.

A one-year "presumption period" has been set up by a new Federal law, Granger said, in connection with malaria, dysentery, peptic ulcer and several other maladies.

What this means is that if the symptoms were late in appearing, or if the veteran has failed to show up to now that the onset of the disease actually came during his service period, he can now obtain full Federal benefits if the ailment appeared within one year after the end of his wartime service. In other words, he is given the benefit of the doubt in such a case.

Veterans in San Mateo county who believe that the new law, Public Law 748, may apply to them were invited by Granger to call at the Veterans Service Office, in the Courthouse, Redwood City between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. and get full information.

SAME RESULTS
No sane motorist would drive his car over a cliff 120 feet high, yet the 60-mile-an-hour driver who collides with another car or a fixed object achieves the same disastrous result, the California State Automobile Association points out.

THE WORLD AT A GLANCE

SHABBY ROSE

"Tokyo Rose" is coming back to America with drooping petals. This American-born girl of Japanese descent must face a treason trial for her part in the Tokyo broadcasts during the war which aimed to undermine the morale of American soldiers. The aim, as we know, was not good, but that did not make her conduct any less treasonable. Altogether there were about six women who alternated in the "Tokyo Rose" broadcasts, but only one was of American birth. It is this one, identified as Mrs. Iva Toguri D'Aquino, who will be tried in San Francisco. The long delay in action against Mrs. D'Aquino was apparently due to the inability of the U.S. Justice Department to obtain two actual witnesses to prove the case against her. It is assumed that such witnesses have now been found and will testify. Justice has been slow in catching up, but the penalty should be no less severe because of the lapse of time, if she is found guilty.

DRAFT CALL

With the sign-up for the draft just about to begin, the Army estimates that it will make an initial call on the draft boards for 15,000 men. This group is expected to be inducted into the service about November 1. When the Selective Service system gets into full swing, the armed forces will take approximately 30,000 men each month. The Navy and Air Force are not calling for any men in the first draft. With the world situation as it is, America is getting started none too soon in rebuilding its military manpower. Even now it will probably take another year to train the number of men needed for our peacetime army. It requires about five or six months to transform a raw recruit into a dependable soldier. However much we de-stress the system of compulsory military service we dare not ignore its necessity under existing conditions. To be prepared is no absolute guarantee that we will stay at peace, but to be unprepared in these days is nothing short of national suicide.

WHERE TO LOOK

The census taker says that would-be brides will find some of the best pickings in the West. In the state of Nevada, for instance, there are 195 single men to every 100 single women. Contrast that with Washington, D. C., where there are only 82 marriageable men for each 100 available young ladies. Massachusetts isn't much better; there the ratio is 84 to 100. But let's get back to the West—the women's happy hunting grounds. Wyoming ranks next to Nevada with 164 unhitched males to each 100 of the opposite sex. The Montana ratio is 150 to 100; Idaho 144 to 100; Arizona 118 to 100, and New Mexico 117 to 100. The California ratio is approximately 104 to 100. Of course, if a young lady wants to live in an area with the greatest possible odds in her favor she should go to Alaska. There the available men outnumber girls nine to one. With a nation that favorable, even the rigors of the Alaskan winter shouldn't deter the migration of "man hunters" to that rugged area.

Openings Now In 'Home Town Navy'

The "home town navy" of the San Francisco Bay Area, offering spare time training with pay, has numerous openings for young men of Daly City.

The naval reserve, civilian organization which is building up the nation's reserve armed strength, has about 800 openings in organized divisions in San Francisco, the navy announced today.

Members train in specialized skills during a two-hour drill one night a week and take a two-week cruise each year.

For each drill period reservists are paid a full day's navy pay in rate, and they receive full pay and allowances for the two-week cruise.

This program is designed not to interfere with civilian occupations and school work. Uniforms and free transportation to meetings are furnished.

A navy bus transports reservists each night of the meeting from the Federal Building, San Francisco, to the drill headquarters at Treasure Island and the San Francisco Naval Shipyard, Hunters Point, and back.

Fourteen surface divisions meet on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights at 8 p.m. each week at Treasure Island. Four submarine divisions meet at the same time at Hunters Point, Tuesday's and Thursdays.

Reservists may choose for themselves whether they wish to participate in the organized units or remain inactive in the volunteer reserve. The only requirement of volunteer reservists is that they notify the commandant of the

'Love' Anthology Devised By Editor For Parent Use

The importance of fiction in giving adults a better understanding of the sex problems of youth is illustrated in a new collection of stories written by some of America's most distinguished authors.

Oddly enough, it is a retired army colonel, Joseph L. Greene, editor of the Infantry Journal, who devised this unusual approach to a perplexing problem of youth. In collaboration with Elizabeth Abell he has edited a collection of 16 stories in which the main character is a young person experiencing a first encounter with sex.

Colonel Joseph L. Greene

Included in the anthology, "First Love," an original Bantam Book to be published this week, are "Too Early for Spring" by Stephen Vincent Benet, "Sex Education" by Dorothy Canfield, "Down in the Reeds by the River" by Victoria Lincoln, "Love in the Snow" by Joel Sayre, and "Romance" by William Saroyan.

It was Miss Canfield's story that prompted the military editor to do an anthology. It first occurred to him that a short story collection might be the best means of giving a clear-cut, sincere presentation of sex facts to youth.

"My thought was that it could be a book that parents would hand to a teen-age son or daughter," says Colonel Greene, "but actually it didn't pan out that way."

After reading more than 650 stories about young love, he and Miss Abell were convinced that they were written mostly for adults as reminders of the past.

It was Dr. Alfred Kinsey, author of "Sexual Behavior in the Human Male," who suggested to Colonel Greene that such an anthology might have value for parents, stimulating them to look to the sex education of their children. That was the direction the book finally took.

"There's a warning in all these stories," claims the military editor. "A warning to parents to clear things up and leave no mysteries for youth."

Of the sixteen stories appearing in the collection he says: "They're a cross-section of emotional experience. Some are touched with humor, some are deeply tragic—some have all the warmth and beauty of youth."

He believes that they reinforce Kinsey's findings about the emotional force in the human being that most people believed. He has also come to some other conclusions about the first encounter with sex as a result of his work on the anthology.

"It's wrong to laugh at puppy love," claims the colonel. "The first sharp experience isn't funny. It may be as deep as anything that happens in a person's lifetime. It can be unreasonably cruel and tragic if those involved are ignorant of the important facts."

He doesn't hold with adults who advise youth by cloaking the truth with talk about the bird and the bee. He's for an absolutely unvarnished, unemotional presentation just as soon as the young person's age and understanding warrant it.

The anthology, "First Love," is an about face from the literary projects which usually suggest Colonel Greene as editor of the Infantry Journal. "What You Should Know About the Army Ground Forces" and "Living Thoughts of Clausewitz" are two of his earlier, more representative titles. Having moved into the field of fiction, he is now working on the idea of a novel based on his army experiences.

John F. Fixa, acting postmaster, announced today that effective September 1, 1948, Domestic Air Parcel Post Service will be inaugurated.

Mr. Fixa said that the potentialities of air parcel post are limitless. Everyone in the home, on the farm, in business, in industry, will be benefited by the use of this speedy, efficient, and sure means of air transportation.

This new service shall apply to mailable matter weighing over 8 ounces but not more than 70 pounds, nor exceeding 100 inches in length and girth combined.

Under this new service, parcels may be sent to Los Angeles at the rate of 65-cents for the first pound and 14-cents for each additional pound; to Seattle, 70-cents for the first pound and 24-cents for each additional pound; and to Chicago, New York, Boston, and New Orleans at the rate of 80-cents for the first pound and 65-cents for each additional pound.

Patrons desiring information on this new service should call the Post Office Information Bureau, Market 1-2500.

PGE To Build Biggest Plant At Moss Landing

A huge steam-operated electric generating plant will be built near Moss Landing on Monterey Bay according to an announcement by William G. B. Euler, vice president and general manager of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company. The plant will have an installed capacity of 402,000 horsepower, making it the largest power plant on the P. G. and E. system.

Announcement was made when the company acquired a site of approximately 280 acres at the junction of Highway 1 and Elk Horn Slough, one-eighth mile north of Moss Landing. The company acquired the property in a transaction with Albert and Louis Vierra. The Vierra family has farmed the acreage many years.

The new power plant will have three 134,000-horsepower generators. The new power will be fed through new 220,000-volt and 110,000-volt transmission circuits into the interconnected P. G. and E. network which serves 46 Northern and Central California counties.

Company officials said the first of the three generating units is scheduled to go into service in the spring of 1950 and the other two in the spring of 1951.

GOV. WARREN STARRED IN CENTENNIAL FILM

Focusing attention on the three-year, statewide centennials program, the California Centennials Commission will stage a spectacular historical exhibit at the California State Fair in Sacramento, September 2-12, Joseph R. Knowland, Commission chairman, announced today.

The historical motion picture, "California's Golden Beginning," will be the highlight of the exhibit, Knowland said. Produced by the Commission in cooperation with the State Department of Education and the motion picture industry, the film depicts the events preceding and immediately following the discovery of gold at Sutter's Mill a century ago.

Making his motion picture debut, Governor Earl Warren appears in the picture as keynoter of the significance of California's three-year commemorative program.

HUBBY CAN'T WIN "There are two kinds of wives who make husbands very uncomfortable: the wife who doesn't know what she wants and won't be happy till she gets it, and the one who knows what she wants and can't get it," Woodhaven (NY) Leader-Observer.

All applicants must be United States citizens. Degrees and State examinations are not required. Examinations may be obtained on forms from the State Personnel Board's offices in Sacramento and San Francisco.

98TH BIRTHDAY OF STATE CELEBRATED BY NATIVE SONS

Native Sons and Daughters of the Golden West Chapter 100 of every community in California will converge on Sacramento on September 8 and 9 to celebrate jointly the 98th anniversary of the state's admission to the Union and the Capitol city's founding 100 years ago.

An extensive program of floats, bands, drill teams, and marching units from various parts of California, will highlight the celebration. The parade will start at 10 a.m. and will end at the Capitol grounds.

Both events are sponsored by the Sacramento Chapter of the NSDGW, with Judge Percy G. West as chairman, and Genevieve West as co-chairman.

During the two-day celebration, the centennial of the founding of the state and the centennial of the founding of the city will be commemorated. The parade will be the highlight of the celebration.

Walter Bailey, NSDGW Grand President of the State, will attend and participate in the two days of activities and ceremonies.

Make Plenty of Flavorful Jelly While Blackberries Are Abundant

By BETTY BARCLAY

Blackberry thickets that are a riot of small white blossoms over which the bees swarm in a burst of energy in early spring, are a mass of julev berries in early summer. In many sections of our country these delicious berries are so abundant they cost very little.

Anyone wishing to reduce their cost to nothing, may pick their own berries along the roadside. That is provided, of course, one can take a few pricks from the brambles.

Blackberries are a summertime delight in many homes where they appear first in deep-dish pies. Then good cooks know, too, that blackberry jelly has a fine flavor and a rich, deep color. Since it will cost less than almost any other sweet, the thrifty homemaker will surely make much of it this season of unrationed sugar.

These simple, tested recipes using powdered or bottled fruit pectin will produce excellent results at a considerable saving of time and energy. They're economical, too, since the pectin method of jam and jelly making requires a shorter period of cooking and produces a larger yield of the finished product. Do try these tested recipes for blackberries, and for blackberries combined with other seasonal fruits and berries:

Blackberry Jam
4 cups prepared fruit
7 cups sugar
½ bottle fruit pectin

To prepare the jam, crush thoroughly about 2 quarts fully ripe blackberries. Place in jelly cloth or bag and squeeze out juice. Measure 3 cups into a large saucepan.

To make the jelly, measure sugar and set aside. Place saucepan holding juice over high heat. Add powdered fruit pectin and stir until mixture comes to a hard boil. At once stir in sugar. Bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard ½ minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat, skim, pour quickly into glasses. Paraffin at once. Makes about 7 six-ounce glasses.

cent years," he declared. "I invite every member of our organization, as well as all other residents of the state, to join with us in observing these two great occasions in Sacramento."

San Mateo Survey Of Old-Age Food Habits

A year-long study in San Mateo county, in which nearly 1,000 persons over 50 years of age will be examined, was announced by Dr. Harold Choche, county health director, this week.

The study is expected to reveal the connection between diet and the degenerative diseases of old age. Volunteers over 50 years of age will take part and the study will be conducted by Dr. Sheldon Dray of the United States Public Health Service in Chicago. The project will cost approximately $40,000 in Federal funds.

Examinations of persons in apparent good health are expected to reveal information on how food deficiencies and ill-advised eating habits may contribute to cancer, heart failure, arthritis and other ailments associated with advancing years.

Funds for the nutritional study were set up by Congress.

Bureau On Lookout For Fake Insurance Man

The Better Business Bureau issued a warning to insurance policyholders to be on the lookout for a man who is attempting to collect advance premiums by promising a special dividend check. In some instances he asked for four months' premium in advance while in others he attempted to collect but one advance premium. One woman was told to call at the Veterans' Administration office for her dividend check. She became suspicious and on calling the Veterans' Administration learned that the man was not authorized to make such representations. In other cases he has falsely claimed to represent well-known life insurance companies.

The man is described as from 35-40 years of age, light complexioned, medium build, 5 foot 7 inches. Anyone approached by him is requested to notify the Better Business Bureau immediately.

'Ice Follies' Winds Up Season On September 12
The famed Shipstads and Johnson "Ice Follies of 1948," which has been holding audiences enthralled at Winterland in San Francisco, ends its summer engagement on Sunday, September 12.

According to George Campbell, Winterland general manager, tickets for all remaining performances of the "Follies" are now available by mail order or at Winterland and Sherman, Clay box offices in San Francisco or Breuners in Oakland.

Hailed as the "greatest ice show ever" by critics and public from coast to coast, the '48 edition of the "Ice Follies" features many bright new stars such as the blonde and beautiful "mirror twins" Joyce and Joanne Scottold, and the sensational "shackled shadows," the Schramm Twins. Old favorites include Roy Shipstad, Evelyn Chandler, Phyllis and Harris Legg, Frick and Frack and Hazel Franklin.

TOES AND FINGERS
Be glad you are not a centipede. Think what might happen! The 1948 edition of "Accident Facts," statistical yearbook of the National Safety Council, points out that occupational accidents alone cause approximately 250,000 finger injuries and 60,000 toe injuries each year.

Most of these injuries are caused by handling materials and falling objects. About 9 per cent of these injuries are of a permanent nature.

Special Classes For Slow Pupils To Be Started

A new county elementary school for "slow learners" will be opened in September, according to Pansy Jewett Abbott, county superintendent of schools. Consisting of three classes, a building owned by the Navy at El Camino Real near Tanforan race track will house the project.

In charge of the school will be William Herbig, county consultant on special education. State legislation requires special instruction for mentally retarded children. Three teachers, specialists in the field, will conduct the classes.

The law requires such classes in any district containing 15 or more pupils certified by psychologists to be in need of special training. Buses will transport the children from various parts of the county.

Six Foot Three? Join The Tip Toppers Club

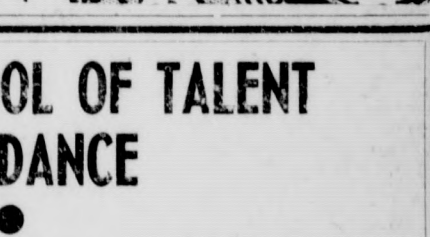

The Army is looking for men—but so is the Tip Toppers Club. The Tip Toppers, however, require that their members stand over six feet three inches in their stocking feet. Girl members of the club must be at least six feet in their nylons.

So said, Doug Cowan, president of the club, in announcing the Tip Toppers' picnic Sunday at Dillon's Beach.

Prospective members can call Cowan at JUNiper 4-5536 or Norman Ludkey, JUNo 8-9405.

Public Utility Tax Assessments Approved By Equalization Board

Public utility property assessments for city tax purposes became final this week as the State Board of Equalization confirmed assessments announced two weeks ago and equalized its values to conform to varying city assessment levels.

Cities doing their own tax assessing this year number 168, a decrease of 3 from last year despite the incorporation of 5 new cities since the 1947 assessment date. The taxes of the other 133 cities of the State are assessed and collected by county officers.

This year 32 out of the 168 cities preparing their own assessment rolls valued property at the levels used by their respective counties; 7 assessed at lower levels than their counties; 120 assessed at higher levels; and 9 have not yet reported to the Board. The Board observed that there was a smaller gap between county and city assessment levels in 1948 than in 1947. Nevertheless, one-fourth of the reporting cities assessed property at least 50 per cent higher than their counties, and one-half assessed at least 25 per cent higher.

Utility properties in the cities with separate tax rolls were assessed at $214,182,440 for county tax purposes and $261,422,410 for city tax purposes, a difference of 22.1 per cent. However, in all cities of the State, including Los Angeles, Oakland, San Diego and others

Water Resources Board Will Survey Sources In Bay Area Counties

The California State Water Resources Board will expedite survey of water resources and supplemental water supply for the 15 counties around San Francisco Bay to meet demands of agriculture and increased population and industrial development, according to California State Chamber of Commerce's Central Coast Council. State acceleration of this study follows a recent meeting of the water resources coordinating committee of the Central Coast Council. At that time representatives of the area's industry and agriculture presented to the Water Resources Board the serious future water needs to cope with the area's growth.

The State Water Resources Board unanimously passed the following motion:

"In view of representations to whose taxes are assessed by their counties, but excluding the consolidated City and County of San Francisco, State-assessed utilities will pay 1948-49 city taxes on values which are only 7.7 per cent above those on which they pay county taxes.

The only protest of the utility assessments was registered by the Great Northern Railroad, whose tax value this year was set at $1,949,340, an increase of 3 per cent over last year's value. The objection was rejected by the Board.

the Board by spokesmen for the 15 counties comprising the San Francisco Bay area that a critical water situation exists in that area, and that a supplemental water supply is necessary to protect its future water development, the engineering staff of our Board in making the survey for the State Water Plan be instructed, as part of that survey, to expedite progress of this work as much as possible, with a view to finding and recommending the best available sources of additional supplies of water to meet present and future requirements of the Bay Area."

Counties included in the water survey are: Alameda, Contra Costa, San Francisco, San Mateo, San Benito, Monterey, Santa Clara, Santa Cruz, Sacramento, Solano, Yolo, Napa, Marin, Sonoma and San Joaquin.

Social Security Procedures

Further explanation of the workings of federal old-age and survivors insurance was given this week by the Social Security Office of San Mateo county:

Who Gets the Benefits Under the Old-Age and Survivors Insurance Program? — The monthly payments made under this program fall into two main groups:

1. To insured wage earners age 65 or over who are temporarily or permanently retired, to their wives age 65 or over, to their children under age 18. (Fully insured status required.)

2. To the survivors of insured workers who have died. These may be children under 18, widows (of any age) who have such a child in their care, widows age 65 or over, and dependent parents age 65 or over. (Fully insured status required for payment to widows age 65 or over who do not have a child of the wage earner in their care or to parents. Others in this group paid on the basis of either fully or currently insured status.)

When there is no survivor immediately eligible for monthly payments at the time of the wage earner's death, a lump-sum payment may be made to a widow or widower living with the wage earner at the time of death or to whoever paid the funeral expenses. (Paid on the basis of either fully or currently insured status.)

How Much Are the Benefits? — The amount of the payment made to a retired worker is based on his average monthly wage in "covered" employment and for example, a worker who had an average wage of $150 for 12 years would receive $33.60 monthly on retirement. Wife's, minor child's and parent's payments equal one-half the worker's benefit. Widow's payments are three-quarters the amount the worker would receive. The largest amount which can be paid to a family is $85 per month. The minimum is $10. The lump-sum payment is six times the monthly rate for the worker.

VETERANS URGED TO KEEP RECORDS

Veterans Administration officials estimate four out of five veterans' widows who are suddenly faced with the necessity of filing claims for pensions find themselves unable to lay hands immediately upon copies of public records necessary to establish the claims.

One of the most important steps a married veteran or serviceman can take to protect his wife and children in case of his death is to place on file a certified copy of the public record of marriage, together with complete certified records of any previous marriages of himself and wife. Copies of birth certificates of any children should also be obtained.

Many a tragic delay in settling the pension claim of a veteran's widow has resulted because the widow or her dead husband had been married previously and adequate proof of the dissolution of that marriage was produced only after a long and painful search.

Veterans and servicemen owe it to their loved ones to insure that necessary records are readily available in case of death.

Question: What supporting evidence must be furnished by a widow or child in order to claim death pension?

Answer: Proof of legal relationship of widow (marriage and dissolution of prior) both

S.F. 'County Fair' Is Merely Flower Show

San Francisco's own "county fair" goes into the rotunda of the city hall this week for a 36-hour stand. No horse races. No carnival. No prize winning exhibits of fruits, vegetables or grains. Just roses, fuschias, begonias and dahlias.

For San Francisco's "county fair" at present is only a flower show. Natives of the metropolis do not have room to raise much more. But it qualifies for State aid marriages, either of yourself or your husband. These facts must be established by authenticated copies of public records.

spouses) and proof of legal relationship of child or acknowledgment of child by veteran.

Question: May death pension be paid to a widow who has remarried?

Answer: No. She loses all status as a widow of her previous husband upon remarriage.

Question: Why is it necessary to submit proof of legal relationship when this evidence was on my husband's military service records?

Answer: The statement on military records is not considered sufficient evidence for a court of law. No investigation is made by the military of legality of the marriage or legal dissolution of previous

SENATOR SAYS GOVT. BOOKLETS ARE SURPLUS

If you want a booklet on the sex of watermelons or giving details of fleas in North America, your government has prepared them for distribution.

Meanwhile, until some such arrangement is completed, San Franciscans are content with their flower show — and with visiting the score or more of real county fairs which are within easy driving range every summer.

Goings On At The Playgrounds

MARCHBANK PARK

By Glen Smith
The movies were enjoyed Monday afternoon by children of Marchbank Playground. The final chapter was to be shown last night after the crafts exhibit.

After many weeks, we finally had our big touch football game. The final score was — "Hams," 19; "Brains," 0.

Marchbank wasn't around for the swimming meet last Friday. We are non-swimmers at Marchbank, it appears.

The baseball game Saturday turned out to be a great contest. Marchbank fans rooted the locals home to a 5-4 finish.

LINCOLN PLAYGROUND

By Jack Root

Eleven boys and two girls from Lincoln Playground went boating and fishing at Lake Merced last Wednesday. No fish were caught, but we had a very enjoyable day with the oars. We took our lunches along and also purchased hot dogs and watermelon.

Those who made the trip were Dick Evans, Darrel Hutchinson, Billy Gensel, Bobby Rich, Marian Grado, Peggy Holcomb, Bob Murphy, Bob Portorian, Tony Delfino, Mickey Leach, Bill Lyman, Don Hennig and Larry Hutchinson.

Lincoln's crayon coloring contest ended Thursday, with Bobby Rich the winner for the boys. Some of the girls had forgotten to sign their names to the pictures they had colored, so the girls' winner will be announced later.

The swimming championships held at Jefferson High School's swimming pool last Friday were a close contest between the playgrounds of Jeff High and Lincoln. Big Jeff dominated the 12-15-year-old boys group and Lincoln dominated the older girls' group. The small boys and small girls groups were about even.

The director has a suspicion that Big Jeff won as they dominated the diving events all the way. Jackie Chambers again was Lincoln's brightest star, receiving five first place certificates. Those who competed for Lincoln were Jackie Chambers, Joan Kilton, Paulette Enders, Dianne Enders, Joyce Porter, Mary Stone, Judy Liberti, Don Ricci, Larry Loma, Tony Delfino, Eddie Larson, Richard Hennig, Don Hennig, Mickey Leach, Roy Gihlin, and Richard McDonough.

A group of 22 boys went with the director Saturday afternoon to Seals Stadium and watched the San Francisco Seals come from behind to nose out the Hollywood Stars in a baseball game, 5-4. Those who attended the game were Bobby Rich, Richard and Billy Gensel, Billy and Jerry Tyland, Larry and Danny Caratti, Blair Forbes, Philip Bond, Paul Campion, Larry Nofziger, Walter Camozzi, Bill Lyman, Owen Charles, Floyd Connel, Milton Osiello, Angelo Casini, Jerry Rosenberg, Darrel Hutchinson, Ray Schmidke, Gene Lorenzo and Richard Vers.

Owen Charles caught himself a souvenir baseball thrown up into the bleachers by Gus Zermal, Hollywood's homerun slugger.

JEFFERSON PLAYGROUND

By Joyce Brown

Jefferson's showing at the swimming meet last Friday was very poor due to the small number of swimmers among the older boys and girls who participated in the meet. The day was not a complete loss, however, what with Janice Toole making a grand slam for the events held for her age group.

Janice, who placed first in the backstroke, freestyle, and breaststroke events, also took a place in comedy diving. Not bad for one day's work, huh?

The swimming meet was followed by a day at Seal's Stadium, where the children watched the Seals win the game by a narrow margin. The game was exciting right up to the last moment of play. In fact the Seals won with a four-run rally in the last half of the ninth inning. Play was featured by a smashing home run hit over the left field wall by Restelli. Among those who watched the thrilling game were Jose Ordenez, Ellie Shulda, Ario Gresori, Marilyn Foss, John Sciutto, Jim Fernandez, Marilyn Toole, Shirley Leston, Janice Toole, Donna Shulda, Lowell Creighton and Donald Neville.

On Wednesday the children went boating on Stow Lake in Golden Gate Park. Before they went boating the children hiked through the park and ate lunch in the children's playground. While at the playground they fed the animals and also went for donkey and merry-go-round rides.

This week the children are looking forward to the trip to Playland at the beach.

CROCKER PLAYGROUND

By Ralph Capps

This week was so packed full of all-city activities that there was little time for tournament play at Crocker.

On Monday several of our children went down to the weekly movies at Jeff. Wednesday saw seven of the boys and I hiking to Lake Merced, where we spent a full day rowing, fishing, roasting wieners and enjoying the warm sun. (We took the bus home.) Friday was the day of the big city-wide swim meet in which Crocker made a very sad showing. Sandra Faulk scored three third place wins and Gil Newcomb scored one, to be the only point winners for Crocker. If we wanted to make excuses we could say that we live too far from the high school to get in much practice; or that we are the least populated playground; or that our star, Martin Verece, could not make the meet. But we don't make excuses so we'll simply say the best team won and pretend we believe it. All kidding aside, we really did enjoy the meet and we met some excellent and far superior competition.

Saturday afternoon Crocker playground went out to Seals Stadium to root for Cliff Melton, pitcher for the San Francisco Seals and resident of the Crocker tract this season. We saw six-year-old Cliff Jr., one of our playground mates, all dressed up in a Seal uniform and playing catch by the Seal dugout before the game. Little Cliff's dad didn't let us down. He came thru with a 5-4 win.

CRAFT CENTERS

By James Kraywinkel

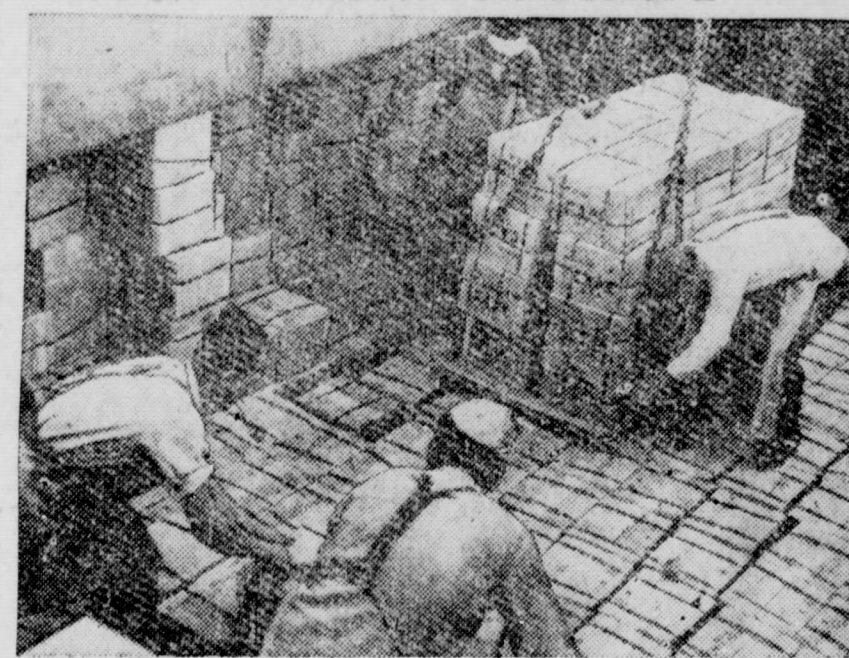

This week both craft centers were feverishly preparing for the craft exhibit which will be held last night from 7-9 in the Jefferson High School cafeteria.

So far we have collected many statuettes, some very nice pieces of wood burning, several paper jars, quite a few hot plate holders, lots of clay ash trays, some nicely covered cigar boxes that serve as pencil boxes or what-have-you holders, and all sorts of paintings—spatter, crayon and finger painting.

The tiny tots in the morning have colored brightly hued birds. Tuesday, they made paper plates into utility holders for their mothers. These also were on exhibit.

We also have photograph albums, plastic pins, pyracraft bracelets, leather coin purses, felt coin purses and painted tin can vases.

"CARE" PACKAGES FOR EUROPE

This is a typical scene in a European port today, as large quantities of CARE packages arrive by barge to fill the warehouses of Europe. The parcels are stockpiled in numerous warehouses throughout the 14 countries served by CARE. From there they are transported to local distribution points.

CARE packages, for guaranteed delivery in Europe, may be ordered from the non-profit organization at 50 Broad Street, New York, N. Y.

Air-Mail And Parcel Post Charges Will Be Increased In 1949

A $100 million boost in postal rates will go into effect January 1, 1949, with a new schedule of postage charges for airmail, special delivery and parcel post.

Ordinary first-class mail will still be posted for 3 cents, but airmail letters will go up from 5 to 6 cents.

A new item — the air mail card — will sell for 4 cents and is expected to cut down use of airmail letters. Payments to airmail were blamed for putting the Post Office Department in the red last year.

Special Deliveries will be raised from 13 to 15 cents and parcel rates will be increased approximately 28 per cent.

U.C. Offers High School Courses By Correspondence

Eighty-six high school courses by correspondence will be offered this coming school year, 1948-1949, by University Extension, University of California.

The courses will include those given in regular high schools, such as algebra, geometry, trigonometry, interest. They are designed to expand the opportunities available to California's high school students. Offerings can be utilized as supplementary instruction or as the regular supply courses for students whose demand is small or intermittent.

The use of this service by secondary schools of the state, payment of the cost from state funds was formally authorized in 1945 by the Legislature of the State of California, Authorizing Assembly Bill No. 1575.

Portola Horsemen Expected Here On Historic Trek

The fourteen horsemen of the Portola Trek entered Santa Barbara county last week — just five days after they left San Francisco.

Making their way northward along the trail followed originally by Gaspar de Portola, the gaily-lad equestrians will arrive here about October 16 before continuing to San Francisco.

The party's entrance into Santa Barbara county was dramatic, as they rode after dark to the Santa Barbara Mission along a way lit by flares. Franciscan Fathers received them in front of the mission, with the famed choir of 50 priests providing musical background.

The Portola horsemen rode to the historic Casa del Presidio to meet the county's committee and receive the traditional blessing of the house. Spanish families in native dress were waiting to greet them at a reception in the patio of the De La Guerra Plaza.

Evening pageants depicted among the Channel Indians and the landing of Cabrillo; the coming of the Portola Expedition of 1769; along the El Camino Real in the days of the Dons, and the story of Santa Barbara's celebrated non Perdidio.

State Loans To Vets In July Total $2 Million

SACRAMENTO — A total of 343 California veterans took advantage during July of the State's low-interest plan to purchase farms and homes, a slight increase over the June figure, the State Department of Veterans Affairs announced today.

The State advanced $2,267,596 to 338 veterans for the purchase of homes, an average of $6,709; and $47,100 on the total cost of five farms, an average of $9,420. In addition, $34,370 was advanced to 84 veterans for repairs and remodeling.

The current interest rate paid by eligible veterans buying homes or farms under the state plan is 3 per cent.

A total of 29,086 veterans of World Wars I and II have participated in the plan since it went into operation in 1922, representing an aggregate state outlay of more than $146,000,000, over half of which has been repaid.
